Confidentiality

• All of our communication becomes part of the clinical record, which is accessible to you upon request, I will keep confidential anything you say as part of our counseling relationship, with the following exceptions: (a) you direct me in writing to disclose information to someone else, (b) it is determined you are a danger to yourself or others (including child or elder abuse), or (c) I am ordered by a court to disclose information. I am a mandated reporter of abuse in the state of Georgia.

Social Media/Internet Policy

• I do not accept invitations from clients to personally network on social media sites. This is a common practice in my field, and this policy helps to protect your privacy. If you have questions or concerns about this, please let me know.
• It is my policy not to conduct Internet searches on my clients. I rely exclusively on the information clients have provided to me directly in our counseling work. However, in matters involving significant safety issues (both mental and physical), I reserve the right to use this public information source.

Complaints: Although clients are encouraged to discuss any concerns with me, you may contact my supervisor, Tatiana Matthews, LPC, CRC, or file a complaint against me with the organization below should you feel I am in violation of the standard of the American Counseling Association's (ACA) Code of Ethics.
